

World Tuberculosis Day was celebrated on 24/03/21 at Vydehi Institute Of Nursing Sciences & Research Center in collaboration with Department of Respiratory Medicine, Vydehi Hospital.

98 participants were registered, participants were final year GNM Nursing students, faculties of VINS & RC and Nursing officers from Respiratory ward, Vydehi Hospital.

Pre level of knowledge was assessed among all the participants through a reliable Pre test questionnaires.

Program got started by lamp lighting by dignitaries and prayer song.

Principal, VINS & RC addressed the session and discussed about the theme, followed by sessions and sessions are as follows-

Session 1- Pathogenesis of Tuberculosis by Dr.K.Srikanth, Asst.Professor, Respiratory Medicine, Vydehi Hospital,

Session 2- Drug regimen and drug side effects by Dr.Alamelu, HOD, Dept.of Respiratory Medicine, Vydehi Hospital,

Session 3- Standards of Nursing Care & responsibilities of Nurse during invasive diagnostic procedures by Mrs.Veena, Lecturer, VINS&RC

Session 4- Prevention of infection transmission among health team members by Mrs.Mounika Lecturer, VINS&RC

Post level of knowledge was assessed through Post test questionnaires.

After brief sessions program got winded up by vote of thanks, followed by National Anthem.

REDMI NOTE 5 PRO
MI DUAL CAMERA

